AMPHORA RECEIVES TOP RANKINGS IN 2016 Energy RISK SOFTWARE SURVEY

Ranks #1 in Freight Trading

HOUSTON, TX, September 7, 2016 – Amphora, Inc, a leading provider of commodity trading and risk management (CTRM) solutions, announced today that it has received top rankings in key categories of the annual Energy Risk Magazine Software Survey. Amphora took first place in the “Best for Freight Trading” category. Amphora also garnered top rankings in the categories “Oil Trading” and “Market Risk: Oil”. Results are based on an extensive worldwide survey of commodity trading companies, oil, gas and electricity firms, hedge funds, banks, consultants and IT implementation specialists. Risk Managers were the largest group of survey respondents.

“We are thrilled that the market has recognized Amphora as the leader in Freight Trading and Risk Management“, says Antonio Albiero, Head of Amphora Freight. Symphony Freight is a complete maritime transportation solution that covers contract capture, voyage scheduling, estimating and claims management including integrated vessel, port and distance tables. When used in conjunction with Amphora’s market leading Symphony CTRM, users not only can view their entire freight operations but also their full market risk and P&L for a quick and accurate assessment of their total exposure.
